HEALTH CARE LAW AND REFORM RESOURCES

Do you need to know how the changes brought about by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act are and will be impacting businesses and individuals? Following are resources that explain provisions of the act.

Books

The Health and Welfare Benefits Plans ABA CLE handbook from the October 2012 session is new to the library. It includes sections on employer perspectives on health care reform, changes in benefits, and health insurance exchanges. It is shelved at KF3509 .A75 H43.

The library owns 2010 Tax Legislation: Patient Protection and Affordable Care, Health Care Reconciliation, HIRE and Other Recent Tax Acts, which focuses on the tax law changes in those acts and covers the non-tax provisions of the health care legislation, KF6276.6201 .A21 2010.

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, KF6276.6201 .A2 2010 contains the text of the legislation. This title is also available on the library's CCH Intelliconnect service.

Online Resources

The text of the health care reform act is online at: <http://thomas.loc.gov/cgi-bin/bdquery/z?d111:H.R.3590:> There is a link on this site to the Congressional Research Summary.

A July 2012 online "Health Reform Alert" from the firm of Burr Forman <http://www.burr.com/x734/HealthReformBillSummary7-12.pdf> discusses the impact of the act on employers, providers and taxpayers.

UCLA School of Law provides links to legislation, regulations, web sites and analysis of the act at: <http://libguides.law.ucla.edu/ppaca>.

The Henry J. Kaiser Foundation site at: <http://healthreform.kff.org/> includes under the "Basics" tab a timeline that lists when provisions of the act go into effect and a subsidy calculator. The research section contains in-depth reports. Another section lays out the act's requirements for employers.

The American Health Lawyers Association web site, <http://www.healthlawyers.org/HCR/Pages/default.aspx> has a page with health reform legal essentials. It includes links to articles discussing the Stark and Anti-Kickback laws.

For the most current news, the Health Law Professor Blog, http://lawprofessors.typepad.com/healthlawprof_blog/ provides informative updates on topics such as regulatory changes and analysis of the impact the legislation is having. The site is keyword searchable.
